Outlook held captive after black-masked bandits drop in

It was just another ordinary day of work at The Falmouth Outlook on Tuesday, September 18. The early morning hours were unusually quiet with the exception of the regular sounds of shuffling papers, the pecking of keyboards in use, and the occasional ringing of the telephone. Little did the staff know that this was just the proverbial "calm before the storm."

With everyone going about their daily duties, it was quite a startle when a loud thud erupted from the front of the office and bookkeeper Sarah Trimble shockingly exclaimed the word "Raccoons!". This brought the other members of the staff on duty running to the uncommon scene just in time to see a pair of confused, furry, black-masked bandits standing in a cloud of dust, insulation, shredded newspapers and debris that had fallen from above.

The two unwelcome strangers, who had fallen through a panel of the drop ceiling in the right hand corner

or place*

We will be doing something a little different this year as the Halloween season is upon us. Are there any homes, old buildings or other places in Pendleton County that are haunted? We'd like to hear the story.

Write the story down and tell us what goes on there. You can e-mail the article to: news@falmouthoutlook.com.

*Man identified
who died at park*

The name of the man who was found dead on September 13, 2012 at Kincaid Lake State Park was Gary S. Goldsberry, 63, of Newport. He was a counselor at the Joseph House and Commonwealth Substance Abuse Specialists and had been a teacher at Simon Kenton High School.

BOO!

Halloween is in the air and the newspaper camera has been traveling around searching for spooky decorations. This was on U.S. 27, Butler at the Garden Girl business. A friend of the family, Chloe Clark, 6, wants to introduce the pumpkin man to you. There are many Halloween decorations along with a yard full of pumpkins for sale. Photo by Jackie Vaughn.

Restoration of Hand Cemetery on Gumlick Road

The Hand Cemetery is located on Gumlick Road. Take Route 330 to East Gumlick Road approximately one and one-half-tenth mile. The cemetery is located on the right side of the road Pendleton County, Ky. (GPS coordinates for Hand Cemetery: Located 6.9 miles from US27 at N38.36.295 by W084.24.786.)

Restoration of the Hand Cemetery on Gumlick Road, near Morgan, Ky. Pendleton County was started in 2010 by the Pendleton County Cemetery Committee and Pendleton County Historical Society. Those participating were Robert Henry Aulick, Ronald Moreland, James Godman, Frank Hussung, Billy Newman, Charlie Pyles, County Surveyor Howard Johnston and his assistant Jason Mann. Special thanks to the Wilson Family for being caretaker of the cemetery for many years and the late Lois Wilson for her encouragement. The graveyard is now fenced in. Not pictured but helping with the restoration was Joe Lemmon and Nancy Bray.

Known burials:

1. John R. Hand (Jack), born April 1794, died 1862. There appears to be a field headstone but no inscription showing.
2. Major (John's slave). Both John and Major are buried in stone enclosure. There appears to be a field headstone for Major, but no inscription showing.
3. Robert Makemson, born abt. 1795 and the last census to show Robert was in 1870. (Age 77.) Do not know date of death at this time. Robert is said to be buried at the Hand Cemetery. (Robert's wife was Peggy Moore)

10 easy recycling tips

Recycling is easy when you know what you're doing. You can get the whole family involved, reuse things you already have, and reduce your carbon footprint.

Borrow an idea from Shopgirl and turn a basic pine hutch into an orderly recycling center. The best part is it corrals everything and, after adding items, you can close the door. Organization is the key to recycling daily. Before planning your cabinet, check with your local recycling center to learn what materials are accepted; plan your space accordingly.

Sort and store: Save drink holders to corral used cans and bottles. Wrap newspapers with twine and then simply stack them. Plastic lids and caps are generally made of a different material than their containers and need to be sorted separately.

Practical placement: Collect used household batteries to take to local drop-offs. Reuse shredded papers as packing material. Gather old phone books and magazines in a wire bin.

EASY RECYCLING TIPS

1. Find a convenient place to collect recyclable items. Most things come from the kitchen, making it a good spot to set up a recycling center.
2. The great thing about recycling is that it lets you put your favorite old containers, bins, or baskets to use. Assign containers for glass, plastic, and aluminum. To avoid messes, choose solid containers for storing items such as glass jars or cans that may have a sticky residue.
3. Take leftover plastic bags back to grocery stores where they are collected and reused to make plastic lumber.
4. Check the bottom of plastic items to identify what type of plastic they are. If the type is not recycled at your local center, consider ways to reuse the container.
5. Save water and time when recycling cans and bottles. You no longer need to rinse them out or remove their labels.
6. Recycle junk mail or reuse it as scratch paper. To opt-out of certain junk-mailing lists, go to opt-out.cdt.org.

Wildcats drop three of four; lose on senior night

By: Sam McClanahan, Reporter

The week that was for the Wildcats soccer team could be divided up in a good news/bad news formula.

The good news: The club continues to get healthier as the regular season winds down and postseason play inches closer.

Also, a commemorative banner was unveiled to pay tribute to the 2008 squad that advanced to the Elite 8 in the state tournament, and the current team bid farewell to a group of six seniors in the home finale last Thursday. The bad news: The 'Cats lost three of four games to fall to 6-9 on the year.

Last Tuesday, the 'Cats hosted the Camels of Campbell County and cruised to a 4-1 victory. Travis Brinkman and Max Dewald scored two goals apiece and senior Aven Harper, the club's most notorious offensive threat, played the role of facilitator as he racked up four assists.

Following the contest, a ceremony was held to recognize the 2008 Wildcat team, and a banner featuring the player's names was introduced to the home crowd.

Two nights later, the 'Cats looked to notch a win on Senior Night against Calvary Christian. Aven Harper gave the home team a quick 1-0 lead as both teams exchanged numerous first half shot attempts. During halftime, six Wildcats were honored along with their parents. Aven Harper, Andrew Antrobus, MacKenzie Colvin, Jacob Farwell, Austin Flaughter and Clay Knight received a warm and well-deserved standing ovation from the home fans. However, in the second half the tide turned quickly against the Wildcats. Calvary Christian evened the score three minutes into the half and went ahead two minutes later. The Cougars extended the lead to 3-1 before Pendleton County fought back to tie the game. Unfortunately, the Cougars went on to score late in the game and won 4-3. Harper finished with two goals and Andrew Antrobus also scored.

Last Saturday, the team traveled south to take on Central Hardin. The 'Cats came out looking sharp as Jacob Farwell netted a goal with an assist from Harper. However, Central Hardin went on to take a 2-1 win. The team also clashed with top 25 ranked Hopkinsville. This game was a battle for the entire 80-minute contest. Both teams traded shots and fought evenly throughout the game, as the 'Cats got scores from Harper and Max Dewald. The game ended in regulation tied at two, and the game was decided via penalty kick. Hopkinsville outshot the 'Cats 5-4 to take 3-2 victory.

"What a battle," said head coach Lisa Feltner. "This was the most intense and exciting game yet this season. We had solid play at every position and I am very proud of how hard we played," she continued.

Despite the close losses, Feltner is pleased with what she is seeing on the field.

"Our intensity is where it needs to be, and we are molding into postseason form."

This week, the 'Cats travel to face Mason County on Tuesday evening at 7:30 p.m., and also travel to square off against Boone County at 7:30 p.m.

The JV Wildcats lost in regional action last Friday night 1-0 to CovCath. Junior Travis Brinkman tallied 30 saves as goalkeeper and was named to the All-Tournament team.

Pendleton Invitational cross country meets Sept. 29

If you have ever wondered what Cross Country is all about, come experience it first hand Saturday, September 29 at Phillip Sharp Middle School. You will see that it is not just about running. It is a sport that requires endurance, strategy and skill.

Cross country runners also have to run races on ever changing terrain and in all kinds of weather conditions. This makes it a very exciting spectator sport as well.

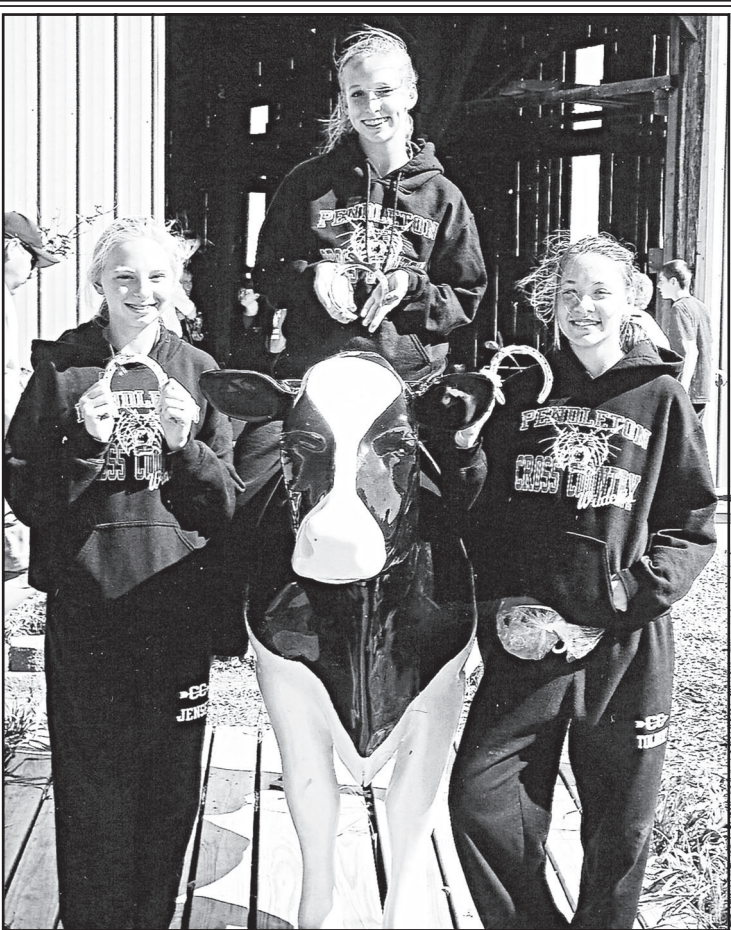

The Pendleton County Invitational will begin at 9:00 am at Phillip Sharp Middle School.

Schools from all around Kentucky will be competing against our high school and middle school teams. The course is new and spectator friendly so come out and see some fast PC Cats running through the wild!!

Sept. 27: Wildcat soccer @ 7:30 p.m. vs. Boone Co.

Sept. 29: Varsity football @ 1 p.m. vs. Cov Cath

October 1: JV football @ 6 p.m. vs. Newport

Girls cross country compete in Double S. Stampede

The PCHS girls' varsity cross country team traveled to Georgetown to compete in the Double S Stamped on September 15. The team had a great time on and off the course! Each Ladycat runner earned either a new personal record time or a season best time at the Double S. Pictured above, from left: Xanthia Jensen, Kylie Figgins and Alexis Tolbert all placed in the top twenty and earned silver horse shoes. Don't forget to come out and see our running Ladycats on September 29 at the Pendleton County Invitational!

PCHS battles Dunbar at Double S

The PCHS boys Varsity and JV cross country teams traveled to the Double S Stampede in Georgetown on Saturday, September 15. Though all teams ran great, Paul Dunbar High School dominated the races. However, all of the Pendleton County's runners continued to improve their individual times tremendously. Boys varsity earned a fourth place team finish and had five of its members with times under 20 minutes. Montgomery

Fraxman earned a horseshoe with a time of 17:43. Right behind him was Josh Brown with a time of 18:27 followed by Caleb Vanoria with a time of 18:37.

Dunbar continued to lead in the JV race as well. However, the boys worked hard and earned a third place finish with Holden Wolfe leading the pack despite his injured arm. He was followed by eighth grade DJ Jordan who placed 26th in his first JV race.

Wildcats lose at home to Bulldogs

By Bruce Reller, Jr., Reporter

The Pendleton County Wildcats lost a home game to Holmes High School last Friday, September 21. The Bulldogs scored early and often and won the game by a score of 64-7.

"Friday's game was a tough loss. Holmes is a good team with great speed and athletes," Wildcat head coach Terry Brown said. "Our team has improved all year long, but we are in the middle of a rough district stretch."

Pendleton County travels to Covington Catholic this Saturday for a 1 p.m. afternoon match-up. Then, they head to Highlands

High School the next Friday.

"Our goal is to improve each week, take advantage of the bye week after Highlands to get healthy, and finish the year strong against Harrison County and Bracken County," Brown explained. "Those are both home games and both are winnable."

The Wildcats are 1-5 overall this season, but they would like to have three victories before it is all said and done. The season is not over for the football team yet.

"We still have a chance to make the playoffs which was our goal at the beginning of the season, so we need to focus, continue to improve, and get a win in the district," Brown said.

Sharp Middle School football had busy month

The last four weeks have been busy for the Sharp Middle School Wildcats. On September 1, 2012 the Wildcats notched their third victory of the season with a 45-34 win over Ludlow. The Wildcats scoring was provided by Grif Appleman, Austin Stull and Logan Fugate.

The last three weeks have not been as fortunate for the Wildcats who have suffered three straight losses and multiple injuries to key personnel. Injuries to Austin Stull and Grif Appleman have kept them out of all or part of three games. The Cats currently stand at 3-3 and will host Holy Cross at home on Saturday night.

The Cats played host to Newport Central Catholic on September 10. The Thoroughbreds jumped to a 14-0 lead with a power game on two long drives. The Cats were able to move the ball and answered with their own drive to make the score 14-6. After a defensive stop the Cats regained control of the ball. In a decisive play the Cats wide receiver broke free for a sure touchdown when he was caught from behind and stripped at the two yard line. The ball was recovered by NCC. The Cats stopped the Breds and forced a punt. On the next possession the Cats threw an interception which was returned for a TD. On the following possession a second interception resulted and Austin Stull was injured and suffered a minor fracture to his ankle. The Breds scored and took a 28-6 lead into halftime. In the second half behind backup quarterback Daniel Sanders the Cats were able to move the ball and scored two touchdowns. Colton Ball made it into the scoring column with a nice catch and TD. The Cats defense rose up and was able to keep the Breds off the scoreboard in the second half. Final score was 28-18. This was a great improvement over last year when NCC won 52-6.

The Wildcats traveled to Tichenor and were beaten 52-27 on September 15. Tichenor is a very talented team whose team is dominated by eighth graders and have dominated the competition all year long. The Trojans jumped on the Wildcats from the start and took a 28-0 halftime lead. Daniel Sanders playing QB for the injured Austin Stull was able to move the ball against the Trojans in the second half putting together two scoring drives. Mike Dewald also contributed with two long kickoff returns one for a TD and a run for a TD. The defense also scored when Royce Saunders recovered a fumble in the endzone.

Coach Hornbeck stated this was the most points Tichenor had given up all season. "We played hard and did not give up. They had to keep putting their first string back into the game until midway through the fourth quarter. We were unable to execute six punt attempts directly accounting for three Tichenor scores. Special teams had been a strong aspect of our game this year so we were surprised by the breakdown."

The Cats played their youth football league rivals Walton Verona. These two teams have been playing each other since the third grade and have had many memorable games. Saturday's game did not disappoint. Austin Stull returned to the Cats starting lineup, but starting running back Grif Appleman who fractured his wrist during practice was unable to play. The game went down to the wire with Walton pulling out the victory by stopping the Cats with 25 seconds to go on the Walton 1 yard line. Mike Dewald kicked two extra points, Daniel Sanders had a TD reception and Austin Stull scored twice. Final score was Walton 26 and Sharp 24.

The offensive line continues to play well and has given the offense the protection and blocking it needs to score points. The defense has not played consistently, but has had some key stops and forced turnovers. Easton Cook has been a dominate force with his play and leadership.

There are two games remaining against Holy Cross at home and Newport at Covington Catholic.

RELIGION

BLANKET CREEK

This week was "Back to church Sunday" and praise God we had a great crowd. We hope they will continue to worship with us.

Specials: Sarah and Bethany Vance, Amy, Tommy and Connor Whitaker, Chrissie Trent.

Announcements: Sunday school picnic September 30 and association annual meeting at Cynthiana Baptist and Fairhaven visit October 13.

Message was titled "Much treasure." When we search God's word we will find treasurers like peace, assurance, forgiveness and purity. Without God there is no hope. Therefore, there can be no peace. We have the assurance of everlasting life. God will forgive any sin if we only repent and accept. God sees us as we should be, not as we are. He wants us to be available to do His work whenever He calls. Always remember to thank Him.

Sunday school begins at 9:45 a.m.; worship 11 a.m., Sunday evening at 7 p.m., worship and youth group and Wednesday night Bible study at 7 p.m. Please join us.

BUTLER BAPTIST

Sunday's message was from Colossians 1:3-8 on the three pillars of life. Faith refers to the past. Love is the present and hope is our future. Faith refers to our faith in Jesus. Belief in Him brings us in touch with God so that we can be His children. God promises to look after us and help us through our trials. Love refers to the love we have one for another. It is based on the sacrificial love that Jesus has for us. Before we criticize someone we should pray for them. Hope in the future is given by God in His word. It promises a new life after death and a home in heaven for all who believe. Don't forget about the church picnic and hymn sing on September 30.

BUTLER CHRISTIAN

Bro. Denny's sermon September 16 was titled, "Taming the tongue." Scripture James 3: 1-12 read by Brian Adams. Liturgist: Austin Magee. Acolyte: Alex is Magee. Special music Lois Ann Record sang "Nearer, my God, to Thee."

Prayer concerns: All nursing home and assisted living residents, shut-ins, Betty Jaeger, Dora Johnson, Robin Mulloy, Janet Courtney, Jim Teegarden, military personnel, Kim Thornton, James Meadows, Pat Lambert, our country, Ken English, Tom Wells, Ann Riley, Ted Greenwell, Sharon Jones, Charles Doutaz, Margaret Gibson, Anna Mary Marshall, Daniel Stinnett, Tyler Vessels, Vidas Race, Debby Veirs, Betty Hedges, Fern Thornberry, Eddie Orr, Julie Adams, Renee Fardo, Terry Petering, Josh Blackaby, Lois Rose, Allison Munson, Shawn Russell, Tom Utz, Anna Hope Curwood, Rusty Davidson, Tina Arevelo, Marvin Rose.

Tuesdays: LIFE youth group meets at 6 p.m.; Bible study at 7 p.m. with meal at 6:30 p.m. Sunday school at 10 a.m.; morning worship 11 p.m. with nursery available.

BUTLER METHODIST

The tongue is like a bit in a horses mouth or a rudder on a ship, it guides us. For one hour a week we come to church and use that tongue to bless God but what does that tongue do the remainder of the week? Do you bless God with that mouth?

On Saturday, workers who have been stewards in our community garden will be winterizing it around 9 a.m. Many thanks to all who have put in some very hard hours there at the garden.

All Sunday school classes have started a new curriculum that follows along with the message each Sunday. This enables us to have a deeper understanding and reflection on what Pastor David brings us.

The Mountain Mission truck will be here on October 15.

Please pray for Greg McElfresh, LeighAnn Chamberlain, people of the Middle East, Heather, Renee Fardo, The Stoll family, Taylor and all those we don't yet know about.

God bless you and keep you until we meet again.

FALMOUTH BAPTIST

If you are looking for a church, we hope you'll stop by Fourth and Maple and worship with us at Falmouth Baptist Church.

We had the honor of celebrating the 100th birthday of Mrs. Evelyn Fryer this week. Evelyn was born in 1912 and was baptized in 1931. Until a recent fall and broken bone, she was still driving herself to church. Evelyn has been extremely faithful to God and to her church. Happy birthday Evelyn and many more!

Bro. Cohen's message was about how to prolong our lives. By doing the following, we might have a good, prosperous and long life. Fear the Lord, and be fair in our dealings with other people. Do not covet, but be content with what we have. Honor and respect our parents. Love wisdom. Love the Word of God. Finally, we should live in the Spirit, having the Spirit of God in our lives.

FALMOUTH CHRISTIAN

Falmouth Christian Church had another exciting week. We hosted a hymn sing Saturday night to help raise funds for Mr. Tony "Tater" Carroll of the Unity Baptist Church for his mission trip to India in the near future. A good crowd was in attendance, and the music program was great. Various churches from all over the county and surrounding counties were present. A wonderful evening of fellowship was enjoyed by everyone. Refreshments were served and enjoyed by everyone also.

Brother Rick's message this week was titled "Who do you serve?" taken from Joshua 24:14-27. We must each focus continuously on loving the Lord and doing His will. Satan is at work all the time. Remember to love the Lord our God with all your heart and soul, and He will give you peace and happiness.

Brenda Hitch of the Butler Methodist Church brought our special music at our morning service. It was beautiful. It's always such a joy to have Brenda and her husband, Ronnie, with us.

Falmouth Christian Church will be hosting another hymn sing on October 13 to help fund Amanda Bruin in her mission work in Honduras. Watch for more details.

Plans are in the making for our Sundae Shoppe at the Wool Fest October 5-7 and our mission trip to Galilean Home on October 12.

Pray for all those who are sick, in nursing homes, those who have lost loved ones, our military, the homeless, and our government leaders. The need for prayer is greater than ever. It does make the difference in everything we do. Have a blessed week!

FIRST BAPTIST

Greetings! We were blessed with two specials this Sunday. Abram and Asa Crozier sang a duet, then Abram sang a solo. We are blessed with so much musical talent in our church.

Bro. Harry's message was taken from Hebrews. Jesus is the same yesterday, today and forever. God never changes and His Gospel never changes. As Christians, we will be persecuted for doing the Lords work, but God will bless you for what you do for Him. When we help others, God is pleased with us. Don't worry about what others think of you, what counts is what God thinks of you. We must live each moment like it is our last.

At the close of services, Becky Heringer came forward requesting membership with our church. Welcome and God bless you always, Becky.

"America needs a faith lift."

HARVEST

What a wonderful job the youth did as they led our services Sunday morning. Katie, Amberly and Samantha led the praise music, Brady gave communion and offering. "Bro. Damian's message was, "Choose your destination" from the scripture text of Colossians 1:21-27. We look forward to the next youth service which will be October 21.

Upcoming activities: Red Lobster and Wool Fest shopping October 30 immediately following morning services concluding with trailer prep at 6 p.m. at Jack's shop and Wool Fest booth worship service at the booth on the October 7. Stop by our booth for a visit and enjoy a delicious rib eye or hamburger.

Prayer concerns: Michelle Caldwell, Elstun Bobb, Amy Davidson, Jackie Thomas, Bro. Dale and the family of Carl Butcher.

Enjoy the beautiful fall weather and God's blessings!

MORGAN CHRISTIAN

Scripture Genesis 6:5-8. The children today did a play based on the above scripture-titled "The Story of Noah and the Ark."

They had built an ark made of cardboard with windows that showed a picture of different animals looking out the windows. As the narrator read they acted out the story dressed in costume. They all did a wonderful job with assistance of a few adults.

Our special music was provided by Steve and Kelly. By the time you read this, we will have had a big dominos game at the hall and a drive-in movie at the home of Steve and Dawn Wood on September 22. Some will be going to the Sharp Middle School on the 28 for PBIS.

Please pray for those in our congregation who are having serious health problems. We love you and want you well again. Also continue your prayers for our country.

MT. CARMEL

We want to Thank everyone who were involved with the Phil Cross Concert.

During the month of September, we have been having a food drive for the food pantries in Grant, Pendleton and Harrison counties. If you would like to participate, each week bring non-perishable food item to the church and put them on the table in the old sanctuary. Items are listed below:

* September 23 - box week (boxed cereal/ cornmeal/ dry milk/ crackers/ spaghetti/ mac'n'cheese)

* September 30 - personal hygiene week (soap/ toothpaste/ shampoo and conditioner, etc.)

Corinth Baptist Church is hosting a Gospel Sing featuring the Southern Aires on Saturday, September 22. The event will be from noon to 5 p.m. at the Corinth City Park. There will also be some local talent singing as well. There is no charge and free food will be provided.

If you are looking for a church home we would love to have you. Please visit our website www.themcbc.com

MT. MORIAH

Mt. Moriah is located at the intersection of KY 17 N. and US 27 N. Sunday school is at 10 a.m., morning worship at 10:45 a.m., children's church at 11 a.m. Ladies Aid meets every month at noon, on the third Thursday, in the church basement. Choir practice is at 5 p.m. every Thursday. Everyone is welcome! Our pastor is Darrell Breeden.

"Conscience tells us that we ought to do right, but it does not tell us what right is - that we are taught by God's Word." H.C. Trumbell

Have a wonderful week! God bless you.

NEW HOPE

This month we have been reminded that evil does exist in the world. Evil people will do evil things to innocent people. Man-kind has free will and some will choose to sin with their free will. As long as we are in this world, we will have to deal with evil. Evil will not continue to reign forever. While we are on this earth, we need to make a decision about our free will. Will we choose to use it to sin or live from God? If you want to choose to live for God, then you need to repent of your sins, believe in Christ and be baptized. God will protect His people in heaven.

NEW ZION

If you are looking for a place to worship come join us on Sunday. Sunday school starts at 10 a.m., morning worship at 11 a.m. and evening service starts at 6:30 p.m. Bible study is at 7 p.m. on Thursdays.

Upcoming opportunities: CrossFire Crew will be meeting at 1:30 p.m., September 23; the L.A.M.B.S. will be singing at the Falmouth Nursing Home with a picnic to follow at the Veterans Park at 1:30 p.m., September 30; WMU and deacons meeting at 6 p.m., October 7; a Harvest Party and hayride at 1 p.m. on October the 21.

"And the feast of harvest, the firstfruits of thy labours, which thou hast sown in the field: and the feast of ingathering, which is in the end of the year, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field." Exodus 23:16

"For just as the Father has life in Himself, even so He gave to the Son also to have life in Himself."
~ John 4:24

Please remember in prayer Charles and Pat Downard, Tina Cochran, Angie Hemphill, Travis Heart, Emily Hull, Dalton, Valerie Echel, Jimmy Cummins, Janet Bishop, Mary Sue Courtney, Eudell Hall, Wanda Spencer, Dona Hobbs, Leslie Warner, Earl West and all of our military men and women. Also remember to pray for our country and its leaders.

OAKLAND CHRISTIAN

It was another cool Sunday morn as we met to hear God's Word proclaimed and enjoy the fellowship with fellow Christians.

A point Bro. Jim made in the evening service was that the heart is the master control center of your life. Beatitudes says we are to be pure, for we shall see God. What a comfort.

Remember the revival at Milford Christian, September 23-26 with Ernie Perry as speaker.

Choir practice is each Sunday at 5:30 p.m. preparing for Christmas.

Many thanks to Agnes Moore for having the lettering done on our church van (Kentucky blue!).

Our sympathy to the families of Thelma Miller and Stella Mains. Prayer concerns include Bobby Johnson, Bev Bass, Peggy Brown, Hazel Jacob, Greg McElfresh, Margaret McCann, Hilda Angell, Renee Fardo, Juanita King, Janice Wolfe, Mindy Redden, Michelle Caldwell, Charles Lee Ramsey, Eudell Hall, our armed forces, shut-ins, cancer issues, college students, and our leaders.

SOUTHSIDE

On September 16, we opened the morning service with the hymn, "Jesus loves me." Brother Clay Sullivan preached the sermon, "Involved or committed" from Romans 15:1-13. There are three building blocks in building the heart of commitment to Christ: 1. Fill up on God's Word daily and apply God's Word to daily living, 2. Unite together with other believers as one in Christ, and 3. Welcome others with the hearts and hands of Christ. The memory verse for the week comes from Romans 15:6, "so that with one heart and mouth, you may glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ." amen!

Be in prayer for all in one way or another.

Church News Policy

Articles should be 150 words or less. Longer articles will be edited.

Deadline is 12:00 p.m. on Wednesdays. Late articles will be held for the following week.

Come and worship with us this Sunday: 9 a.m. Sunday school and 10 a.m. worship service. Have a great day!

TRINITY

We are preparing the future of our church. Awanas started September 16 each Sunday for all kids between preschool to sixth grades from 6:15-7:30 p.m. and youth will continue each Sunday night. We can't wait to see all the talent and growth of our youth group on "Youth Sunday," October 28. Thanks for all the hard work and donations to help raise money for our kingdom fund at our annual church yard sale on September 21 and 22. Do you want to get closer to God? Our "Getting to know your Bible" study on Wednesday night at 6:30 p.m. will be a step in the right direction. Don't forget to mark your calendar for our fifth Sunday dinner, after morning services, on September 30. Be looking for more details in the coming weeks about our community outreach dinner on October 19.

TURNER RIDGE

Sunday, Sept. 16 worship began at 10 a.m. with Sunday school. God's word being taught and shared with all ages. We started the service with hymns of worship at 11 a.m. The children's sermon led by Uncle Dale was "Strong in the Lord." Not only should we strive to be physically fit, but spiritually fit as well, by attending Sunday school and reading God's word.

Scripture was read by Preston Wright from John 6:48-51. The choir had special music and Bro. Dales's message was "Making disciples," Matthew 28:19-20 "The Great Commission." "Go therefore and make disciples..." It is important to not only feed those hungry for food, but more important those that need to be spiritually fed. Share God's word and you will supply the food for everlasting life. "And Jesus said unto them, I am the bread of life..." John 6:35.

Through this spiritual workout you could be saved by grace through faith in Jesus Christ, then baptized in obedience to God's command.

Come join us Sunday morning at 10 and 11 a.m. and Sunday evening at 6:30 and 7:15 p.m.

HIGHLIGHTS

Football history spanning all the way from the ancient Greeks to modern day American

Fall is in the air and the football season is upon us again. Time to pull out your favorite hoodie and head out to root for your favorite team, be it NFL, college or the local high school. Regardless, be for sure that football as we know it today has come a far cry from its beginnings and gone through a lot of changes along the way.

Football (as well as rugby and soccer) are believed to have descended from the ancient Greek game of harpaston. Harpaston is mentioned frequently in classical literature, where it is often referred to as a "very rough and brutal game." The rules of this ancient sport were quite simple. Points were awarded when a player would cross a goal line by either kicking the ball, running with it across the goal line, or throwing it across the line to another player. The other team's objective was simply to stop them by any means possible. There was no specific field length, no side line boundaries, no specified number of players per team, only a glaring lack of rules.

Most modern versions of football are believed to have originated from England in the twelfth century. The game became so popular in England that the kings of that time (Henry II and Henry IV) actually banned football. They believed that football was taking away interest from the traditional sports of England, such as fencing and archery.

Football didn't really begin to take on any consistency of rules and boundaries until it was picked up as a sport in the seven major public schools of England in the early 1800's. Six of the seven schools were largely playing the same game (including Eton, Harrow and Winchester) - while the seventh, Rugby

School (founded in 1567) was playing a markedly different version of football.

The other schools moved ahead refining their rules and eventually their game became known as "association football" - or soccer, which was played back then much as it is today.

Rugby School went in a different direction. How and why the game developed differently at Rugby School appears to have been lost in history, but what is known is that by the 1830's, running with the ball at Rugby School was in common use and 18 foot goal posts had been added with a cross-bar at 10 feet above the ground.

The inclusion of the cross-bar was accompanied by a rule that a goal could only be scored by the ball passing over the bar from a place kick or drop kick. Apparently this was done to make scoring easier from further out and also to avoid the horde of defenders standing in and blocking the mouth of the goal.

Players who were able to "touch down" the ball behind the opponents goal line were awarded a "try-at-goal" - the player would make a mark on the goal line and then walk back onto the field of play to a point where a place kick at the goal was possible (a conversion). There was also an "off-your-side" rule used to keep the teams apart. Passing the ball forward was not allowed.

By the mid-1860s British schools and universities had taken up Rugby's game and honored the school by giving the "new football" the name of rugby.

The birth date of football in the United States is generally regarded by football historians as November 6, 1869, when teams from Rutgers and Princeton Universities met for the first intercollegiate football game. In those early games, there were 20 players to a team and football still more closely resembled rugby than modern football.

The game of football has a history of constant rule changes. Rule changes have been implemented to bolster the excitement of the game of football and to increase the game's safety.

In 1873, representatives from Columbia, Rutgers, Princeton, and Yale Universities met in New York City to formulate the first intercollegiate football rules for the increasingly popular game. These four teams established the Intercollegiate Football Association (IFA) and set 15 as the number of players allowed on each team.

Walter Camp, the coach at Yale and a dissenter from the IFA over his desire for an eleven man team, helped begin the final step in the evolution from rugby-style play to the modern game of American football. The IFA's rules committee, led by Camp, soon cut the number of players from fifteen to eleven, and also instituted the size of the playing field, at one hundred ten yards. In 1882 Camp also introduced the system of downs. After first allowing three attempts to advance the ball five yards, in 1906 the distance was changed to ten yards. The fourth down was added in 1912.

Within a decade, concern over the increasing brutality of the game led to its ban by some colleges. Nearly 180 players had suffered serious injuries, and eighteen deaths had been reported from the brutal mass plays that had become common practice. So in 1905, President Theodore Roosevelt called upon Harvard, Princeton, and Yale to help save the sport from demise.

At a meeting between the schools, reform was agreed upon, and at a second meeting, attended by more than sixty other schools, the group appointed a seven member Rules Committee and set up what would later become known as the National Collegiate Athletic Association, or the NCAA.

From this committee came the legalization of the forward pass, which resulted in a redesign of the ball and a more open style of play on the field. The rough mass plays, which once caused so many serious injuries, were prohibited by the committee. Also prohibited was the locking of arms by teammates in an effort to clear the way for their ball carriers. The length of the game was shortened, from seventy to sixty minutes, and the neutral zone, which separates the teams by the length of the ball before each play begins, was also established.

Though refinements to the game would continue to the present day, the modern game of American football had arrived.

SENATOR KATIE STINE'S FRANKFORT REPORT

State Senator
Katie Stine

There have been several news reports about the impact of Obamacare in Kentucky. In July the Beshear administration, without any input much less approval from the general assembly, issued an Executive Order forming a health insurance exchange for the state. At the interim joint committee on health and welfare last month, administration officials presented a report on the implementation of this exchange. Remarkably, they could not tell the committee how they were going to pay for it or even more incredibly, how much it was going to cost. Several senators spoke up during the meeting to point out that unanswered questions, unknown costs, additional fees for insurers, and the administration's hiring of 200 more state employees, made it clear that the only certainty was increased bureaucracy. There were enough legislators, both democrat and republican, who were uncomfortable with the lack of proposal details that we prevailed in scheduling another meeting in September.

On Wednesday of this week, that meeting occurred. A vote was taken to reject the Executive Order establishing the health insurance exchange because we do not believe that the governor has the ability, under state law, to create this completely new government entity. The committee received no substantial answers about the costs, the budget, or any other details of the plan. Further, the meeting was marred by the highly unusual move on the part of House and Senate democrats who walked out of the committee even before the discussion began. I made the point that it is our responsibility as legislators, as the representatives of the people, to engage in a full and candid dialogue about such a major policy change. It is my hope that they will return to the table so that we can work together.

Other meetings that occurred last week included the Interim Joint Committee on Economic Development and Tourism, which met at the Salato Wildlife Center in Frankfort. The Secretary of Tourism, Arts, and Heritage, Marchetta Sparrow, along with Elaine Wilson, director of Adventure Tourism, gave an overview of the 1,444 recreational trails in Kentucky. The Unbridled Kentucky Adventure Guide includes 825 hiking trails, 304 mountain bike trails, 224 horseback riding trails, nine road cycling trails, and 82 ATV trails. Information about this can be accessed at www.getoutky.com. The Committee also heard a presentation about the 56-mile Pine Mountain Trail in Eastern Kentucky.

Special subcommittee on energy met on Friday and heard a presentation from Energy and Environment Cabinet Secretary Len Peters about carbon sequestration and natural gas pricing. We also heard from the deputy commissioner for Energy Development and Independence, John Davies, about how to help low income families make their homes more energy efficient and thus save money on utility bills. For help, Kentuckians can contact John Davies at the Department for Energy Development and Independence at 502-564-7192.

I can be reached toll-free at 1-800-372-7181. As always, my staff and I are available to you for questions.

- 1) The purchaser shall be required to pay ten percent (10%) of the purchase price on the date of the sale, to apply on the purchase price;
- 2) The balance of the purchase price shall be due and payable, in cash or certified funds, within sixty (60) days from the date of sale;
- 3) The purchaser shall be required to execute a bond, with good and sufficient surety thereon for the unpaid balance of the purchase price, said bond to bear interest at the rate of twelve percent (12%) per annum from the date of sale, until paid;
- 4) The purchaser shall have the privilege of paying all or any part of the purchase price or paying said bond before maturity by paying the balance of the principal, together with all accrued interest thereon;
- 5) The purchaser shall be required to assume and pay any and all ad valorem taxes on the subject property for the year 2012, and all subsequent taxes;
- 6) The subject property shall be sold free and clear of all liens and claims of any party to this action, except restrictions and easements thereon appearing of record in the Pendleton County Clerk's Office, if any;
- 7) Possession of the subject property shall be given to the purchaser upon confirmation of Commissioner's sale, and the Defendants or any persons claiming through them shall have vacated the premises by that time; and
- 8) Said property shall be sold subject to:
 - a) Assessments for public improvements levied against the subject property,
 - b) Existing zoning ordinances, statutes, laws or regulations;
 - c) Any facts which an accurate survey or inspection of the property may disclose.

Bidders will be prepared to comply with these terms.
